Ramblings

What's up with this weather!?! Three snow events! Thank goodness for garages to keep our prized possessions safe from the elements. Throw in a couple of intermittent Spring-like weekends in between and it's no surprise that just about everyone has been sick recently. This sunny weekend allowed for a stellar turnout at the Caffeine and Octane cruise-in and me to put the top down on my '65.

For those of you who think early model Mustangs are hard to come by or, only happen in Mustang Monthly articles, I'm here to tell you they are still out there. My brother has been jealous of my Stang and has been having a hard time finding one out in New Mexico so I've been looking for him. Well, last month I came across a find on Craig's list that looked promising, a 1965 convertible with a 289 at a reasonable price. As with most cases, the car didn't look as good once I got to see it up close. But, as a true enthusiast, I could see beyond the dents, holes, tears and leaking fluids, at the potential a little sweat-equity could produce. My brother trusted me and the owner saw that I was going to take care of "her", and I drove "her" home for $4,500. My brother is quite pleased (even though his wife still doesn't quite get the whole "Mustang" thing). So, if you have a dream for that new "old" Stang, keep looking and good luck.

My son, who has a '01, is starting to learn that what he knows can sometimes get him only so far and that it's who you know that helps him get the rest of the way. This is especially true with Mustangs no matter what year it is. That's why we're part of this club right? Networking with fellow enthusiast, blogging on the website, exchanging ideas on facebook and coming to the monthly meetings are all ways we benefit. Not to mention the car shows.

Speaking of which, the Mazzy's Birthday Bash show is next month. Take a look at the flyer attached. We will need a lot of volunteers to make this the best show for all with minimal effort, "many hands make light work".

Share the flyer with as many people as you can so we can make this a successful show for everyone.
